

Addendum for Pay-Per-Download Services for Subscription-Based Journals

The agreement between [Publishing Partner] (the “Publishing Partner”) and the University of Michigan dated _____ is hereby amended. This Addendum constitutes an integral part of the hosting agreement and is binding on both parties. Should there be conflicting terms or conditions between the body of the agreement and this Addendum, this Addendum shall be paramount. This addendum supersedes any previous amendments on print pay-per-download services for subscription-based journals. The hosting agreement, including the addendum, constitutes the final agreement between Publishing Partner and the University of Michigan with respect to publication of the work specified in the original agreement and the allocation of rights provided by copyright.

- 1) Pay Per Download. University of Michigan shall offer pay-per-download functionality to non-subscribing users of the journal. This functionality allows users to pay to download individual journal articles.
- 2) Sale Price. Publishing Partner shall set the retail price for each article. Publishing Partner may change this retail price at any time by notifying University of Michigan, which will adjust it within 30 days.
- 3) Administrative Fee. University of Michigan shall charge Publishing Partner an administrative fee of fifteen percent (15%) of the sale price or $0.15 per article sold, whichever is higher. These fees shall be included in the quarterly invoice produced by University of Michigan as in the Addendum on Hosting Fee for Subscription-Based Journals. This fee is subject to change with 60 days’ notice.

Publishing Partner Representative:

_____ Date: _____

Approved for the Regents of the University of Michigan by

_____ Date: _____

John Wilkin
Associate University Librarian for Publishing
University of Michigan